

Infant and Toddler Play Rubric

Formatted	0 Points No format	4 Points Content format is varied and inconsistent; information included is confusing	7 Points Content format is mostly clear with some inconsistency	10 Points Content format is clear and consistent throughout
Resources identified (including the resource provided)	0 Points No resource information			5 Points Resource information is clearly identified
4 age groups identified	0 Points No age groups identified	2 Points One age group identified	5 Points Two to three age groups identified	10 Points 4 age groups identified
Play activities	0 Points Did not provide summary	5 Points Play activities mentioned; specifics to age group not included	15 Points Play activities mentioned; limited connections to age groups	25 Points Play activities clearly listed for each age group
How play enhances development	0 Points No connection between play and development	5-10 Points Limited connection between play and development; no connection to age groups	15 Points Some connection for how play enhances development with some connection to age groups	20 Points Clear descriptions for how play enhances development for each age group
Each developmental domain considered	0 Points Developmental domains not considered	5-10 Points One developmental domains considered	15 Points Two to three developmental domains considered	20 Points All developmental domains considered
Caregivers support	0 Points Caregiver involvement not discussed	2 Point Limited mention of caregiver involvement	5Points Caregiver involvement mentioned but limited connection to age group and/or activities	10 Points Clear description of caregiver involvement for supporting play for each age group and/or activity